1964 was a year for the history books! Muhammad Ali became the Heavyweight Boxing Champion of the World, America was in the throes of 'Beatlemania' and Wanis opened its first shop in London's old East End.

Our parents: Mr and Mrs 'Wani', as they were affectionately nicknamed by their customers, took the first steps of our family business which, after six decades of long working hours, stress and sacrifice, would become one of Europe's leading World Foods distributors, employing over 150 people and creating thousands of jobs and business opportunities worldwide.

Celebrating our 60th year, we are taking the time to reflect and give thanks for our team, customers and partners, many of whom have been with us for decades. As a family business, we take so much pride in the relationships we've been able to build. We know how lucky we are and we take none of it for granted.

In honour of our father, Tulsidas Wadhvani, and with boundless love and appreciation, we thank YOU for being on this journey with us. We hope to continue serving communities worldwide, connecting cultures as "food is the ingredient that binds us together."
